

Exhibit H:

Affidavit of Richard Atwood

2. I am not suffering from any disease, defect, or condition that would impair or limit my ability to swear to or affirm the truth of the matters asserted herein, nor has Affiant been determined to be mentally incompetent by a court or other similar tribunal.

3. I am the administrator of the Park County Detention Center. I have held that position since February 2007.

4. On August 20, 2009, during his initial incarceration, Large filed an inmate grievance concerning delay in responding to an earlier request for legal research material. (Doc. 17, Ex. F, Bates Nos. 00008 & 00019).

5. I responded to the grievance the next day by providing Large with his requested legal research. (Doc. 17, Ex. G, Bates Nos. 00020-00065).

6. Large never appealed this response to his grievance, nor did he make any further request for additional specific research assistance.

7. Large's grievance dated November 19, 2009, concerning access to a law library was filed with a sergeant and never appealed to me; this was a failure to exhaust.

8. Large did not properly follow the Park County Detention Center's grievance procedure concerning either his claim of access to courts or medical care.

9. Large never filed a single grievance concerning the care he received for his dental problems.

10. I never interfered with or delayed any dental care prescribed or recommended for Jeramie Large by any health care professional at the Park County Detention Center.

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NAUGHT.

DATED this 03 day of June, 2010.
